

about us

History

EDB Training Services Pty Ltd provides Nationally Recognised Qualifications which will increase your staffs knowledge, skill base and improve productivity, performance and engage your team.

All Australian businesses are in the midst of a skill shortages crisis across all industries, the need to upskill your team is becoming imperative to maintain your competitive edge. The Government recognises this and in turn provides financial assistance where applicable to help train your team and support the longevity of your business.

EDB's Experience

EDB's trainers have years of experience training in both Logistics and Business environments. Providing training to small, medium and large organisations, EDB is able to cater for any number of students.

The trainers at EDB possess a degree in Psychology, Master of Human Resource Management, Certificate IV in Workplace Training and Assessment, Certificate IV in Business (Frontline Management), Certificate III in Transport and Distribution and a Certificate III in Hospitality Operations.

What can EDB provide your Business?

EDB is able to provide Nationally Recognised Training in the following areas:

- Up to Certificate IV in Business (with strands in Administration, Human resources, Frontline Management and Business Management)
- Diploma of Business (with strands in Administration, Human Resources, Frontline Management and Business Management)
- Up to Certificate IV in Transport and Distribution (with strands in Warehousing, Road Transport and Administration).

What makes EDB different?

The training is conducted in a way that suits your operation. For example, our trainers will assess truck drivers 1 on 1 in their vehicles, whilst drivers make their deliveries, it can be done in small groups as your staff pick orders or in a large classroom environment with activities and role plays. Some of the Business modules require assignment type work which can be done in a persons own time or in quiet periods at their desk. It can be conducted by correspondence or via phone conferencing. Whatever best suits your business needs, and will be agreed upon before any training begins.
